Production: France 24
Format: 4 x 12mn

In the weeks leading up to the opening of COP 28, France 24 sheds light on those who are on the front line every day in the face of climate change.

From Kenya to Panama, via Greenland and Australia, France 24's reporters James André and Achraf Abid meet the Indigenous peoples who live in harmony with nature and whose daily lives are disrupted by climate change.

- Episode 1: With the Turkana when drought kills
- Episode 2: With the Inuit when the ice melts
- Episode 3: With the Aboriginal Australians when the bush burns
- Episode 4: With the Guna when the oceans rise
