France 24 strengthens its presence in India

The international news channel France 24 is proud to announce a new distribution agreement with AIRTEL, India's second telecommunications operator.

Thanks to this new agreement, France 24 in English is now accessible to AIRTEL's 16 million subscribers, significantly strengthening the channel's presence in the country.

Already present in several cable and satellite offers in India, France 24 is currently available in 60 million Indian households. 37% of those are paid-television subscribers.
