

France
médias
monde

press release

Friday, May 9, 2025

RFI, FRANCE 24, AND MONTE CARLO DOUALIYA AT THE 78th CANNES FILM FESTIVAL May 13 to 24, 2025

As they do every year, RFI, France 24 and Monte Carlo Doualiya will be on the ground in Cannes to bring the world's largest film festival to their hundreds of millions of viewers and listeners across the globe.

The three outlets of the France Médias Monde group will offer daily special coverage across television, radio and digital platforms – in French, English, Arabic, Chinese, Haitian Creole, Spanish, Fulfulde, Hausa, Khmer, Kiswahili, Mandinka, Persian, Portuguese, Brazilian, Romanian, Russian, Ukrainian and Vietnamese – to share the filmmakers' creativity and vision with a global audience.

Meanwhile, special correspondents will provide in-depth coverage of the festival's major moments through daily columns, reports, and live broadcasts, both on air and online.

France Médias Monde's flagship cultural magazines – Tous les cinémas du monde (RFI in French), À l'affiche ! (France 24 in French), arts24 (France 24 in English), Carrusel de las Artes (RFI and France 24 in Spanish), ثقافة (France 24 in Arabic) and مراسي (Monte Carlo Doualiya) – will be broadcast live from Cannes throughout the Festival, offering exclusive insights and interviews.

A long-standing partner of La Fabrique Cinéma at the French Institute, France Médias Monde is also proud to support the Citizen Prize in Cannes. Once again, RFI will set up its studio at the "Les Cinémas du Monde" Pavilion in the heart of the Village International. The international radio will also continue its extensive coverage of the Directors' Fortnight and Critics' Week.

Press contact: Corentin Lepage, corentin.lepage@rfi.fr, +33 (0) 1 84 22 73 16

Contact at the Festival: Kevin Colin/ kevin.colin@francemm.com, +33 (0) 6 31 44 78 23

To be found at the Festival in the Village International, Pavillon 107 – Pavillon Les Cinémas du monde