To mark the return of the Women's Tour de France, which kicks off on July 24th from the Eiffel Tower, The 51 Percent, France 24 women's show, hosted by Annette Young, has a special report on this upcoming event.

In the show, the competitors talk about their expectations, and how they hope the race will lead to professional women's cycling to move up a gear.

Annette Young talks to Marion Rouse, tour director and along with other professional and amateur cyclists from the 22 teams, as well as Audrey Cordot-Ragan, the French national road race champion 2022.
