Clément Di Roma, France 24's Rwanda correspondent awarded the Daphne Caruana Galizia Prize for Journalism

France 24's correspondent in Rwanda, Clément di Roma, and former RFI correspondent in Bangui, Carol Valade, were awarded the Daphne Caruana Galizia Prize on Wednesday October 19th for their documentary "Russian Soft Power in The Central African Republic", broadcast last July on Arte and on France 24 last September under the title « Central African Republic – Under Russian influence »

Awarded by the European Parliament, this prize pays tribute to the investigative journalist Daphne Caruana Galizia, who was killed in a car bomb explosion in Malta on October 16th 2017. Each year, the award distinguishes outstanding journalism work based on the principles and values of the European Union.

The award ceremony was held at the European Parliament in Strasbourg, in the presence of its President, Roberta Metsola, Daphne Caruana Galizia's son and the members of the European jury.
